Dave Berry	yes	I have concerns about the direction that KAFM appears to be heading, primarily in terms of financial health, membership/listenership, and volunteerism. I believe that a coordinated approach within the membership and management combined with an expanded educational/collaborative effort in the greater community are means for ensuring the health and longevity of KAFM. I would like to help with these efforts.	Strategic planning, non-profit, event planning, organizational skills	While I did not participate in the founding and startup of KAFM, I joined early as a programmer and volunteer. I have seen Board members and Executive Directors come and go, as well as experiencing the ebbs and flows of the organization. I have not participated directly in the management of the radio station to date, but I have been aware of operational changes and their effects over the years.	yes
Tina Harbin	yes	I want to serve because I have past experience and qualifications to help the station that I have been Involved with since 2006. I have been through the hiring process when our ED at our Realtor office resigned and I know how to put a hiring team together. When our ED left, I chose past presidents and past directors to guide the team and pick the best candidate. I am familiar with policy governance and other forms of practices.	Strategic planning, website/social media, organizational skills, media relations, leadership skills, advertising/communications	I also owned a real estate company, Real Estate West, for over 10 years and was responsible for day to day functions and managing 30+ real estate agents. I sold when someone made me an offer I could not refuse	yes
Mark Tidd	yes	I have lived in Grand Junction and been a listener since January, 2000. I was originally directed to the station by a friend. I have been a KAFM volunteer, off and on, since 2002. I am a Programmer every Tuesday, 6a-9a, substitute Programmer when needed, and review new music for the Music Director, and assist at offsite events. I stayed for the music but also grew to	Strategic Planning, Radio/Entertainment, Fund raising	I believe I can contribute to the Board Of Directors with my Marketing experience and general business knowledge. I have shared responsibility for corporate/departmental budgets. I understand what is required for a successful Special Event. I know the history and have ideas for more events.	yes

Craig Reid	yes	love the idea ofCommunity. It's everyone radio station. As a member and programmer since 2013 I have watched the stations ups and downs and would like to be in a more supportive role in it's continued success.	Strategic planning	As a construction Superintendent for 26 Years, my roles were the responsibility of accounting for and managing millions of dollars on projects. I take spending other people's money very seriously. Managing these projects required extensive coordination with many individuals, organizations , contractors and entities both public and private. As a member and volunteer at KAFM I believe I have insights that will be helpful to the stations future well being and success.	yes
